Reading activity: Introducing Class 1-A

She is Asui, her heroine's name is Froppy. She is calm and collected as well as intelligent. She is not very tall but she can jump very high thanks to her frog superpower. She has a very long tongue which she uses to move quickly through the buildings in the streets to chase villains.

He is Midoriya, his hero name is Deku. He was born without powers, but thanks to his bravery he got his favourite superhero called All-Might to give him his power. This super power called "One for all" gives him many different powers: he is very strong and he can fly. He has always been very polite and calm, as well as emotional and generous.

This is Tenya, his hero name is Ingenium. His super power is extreme speed so he is faster than the rest of his teammates. He has car engines in his legs. He is the delegate of class 1-A because he is very intelligent and disciplined. He is also very organised with his studies and very energetic in his day to day life.

This is Ochaco, her heroine's name is Uravity. Her superpower is zero gravity, which allows her to remove gravity from the objects she touches, even from herself! Her power is highly valued in rescue missions to lift heavy objects in places where there are disasters. However, she is not strong. She is a very positive and empathetic person as well as optimistic and friendly.

He is Mineta, his hero name is Grape Juice. His super power means he can pick up sticky balls from his head and throw them at villains. These balls are purple like his hair. He is shorter than the rest of his teammates. He is very cowardly and pessimistic and he is not very smart either, but he follows the orders of his teammates well.

He is Kirishima but his superhero name is Red Riot. His super power is hardening, he can make his body harder than stone. He is very outgoing and optimistic but most of all he is very friendly and brave. His best friend is Bakugo, even though he is totally different from him.

He is Bakugo and his super hero name is God of the big killer blast Dynamight. His super power is explosion. He can create explosions with his hands which he uses to attack villains but also to push himself. He is very aggressive and arrogant as well a rude. He thinks he is better than everyone else and his dream is to become number 1. Despite his personality he is one of the best fighting heroes.

He is Tokoyami and his super hero name is Jet-Black Hero. His gift is called Dark Shadow. This gift makes him able to manifest an intelligent shadow monster. The monster's personality, strength, defence and control depend on the lack of light. He has a bird's head and his costume is a black cape that makes him look like a hawk. He is very serious and introverted but also brave and strong.

Answer these questions:

- Who is the least brave hero?
- Why do you think bakugo's name is so long?
- Who has a friendly personality? Who does not?
- What was Asui's super power?
- Why is Tenya the delegate of class 1-A?
- Which character was born without powers?
- Why do you think Mineta's superhero name is Grape Juice?
- Which two characters have completely different personalities?
- What does Tokoyami's super power depend on?

LIVEWORKSHEETS