

LANGUAGE ARTS WORKSHEET – G AND J SOUND

Read each word below. Write g in the blank if the word has the hard g sound. Write j if the word contains the j sound.

- | | |
|------------|---------------|
| 1. region | 7. gentle |
| 2. giant | 8. stage |
| 3. gobbled | 9. endangered |
| 4. largest | 10. gorillas |
| 5. range | 11. pledge |
| 6. edge | 12. disgust |

RULE

The letters g and dge can stand for the j sound. Sometimes the letter g stands for the hard g sound.

page bridge gate

Write the word from the list above that completes each sentence. Use each word only once.

- We met on the school _____ to build the set for the play.
- Our play is about saving the wild _____.
- Gorillas are the _____ of all the apes.
- They look a bit scary, but actually they are quite _____.
- These _____ apes live in groups of up to 30 animals.
- Each group has a territory that will _____ from about 10 to 15 square miles.
- We decided to make the stage look like a _____ of the rain forest where the gorillas live.
- Gorillas are _____, mostly because people are cutting down the rain forest.
- We soon stopped for lunch, but Harry had _____ all the sandwiches.
- "Act your age," snapped Marla in _____.
- After working hard, we sat on the _____ of the stage and rested.
- We decided to _____ some of the money from the play to a wildlife fund.

