

DIGESTION – MOUTH, ESOPHAGUS, STOMACH

Match the vocabulary and their meanings

Mouth

Tube in throat that takes food from mouth to stomach by squeezing stomach

System that takes energy from food and gives it to your body

esophagus

First part of digestion, chewing take place here

digestive system

Acts like a bag, mixes food with acids to break them down

DRAG AND DROP THE CORRECT WORD UNDER THE CORRECT HEADINGS

MECHANICAL DIGESTION

CHEMICAL DIGESTION

teeth chew food into tiny pieces

Enzyme breaks starch into sugar

The _____ is a muscular tube that connects the _____ to the stomach

Food is pushed through the esophagus and into the stomach with a series of wave-like muscle contractions called

esophagus

throat

peristalsis.

The stomach is a _____ that connects the esophagus to the small intestine; has _____ layers of muscle; _____ and breaks down food; can carry 2 liters of food

The stomach does three main jobs:

stores food

breaks down the food into soft, runny liquid called secretes enzymes that breaks down protein bag-like muscle

three stores

chyme