

THE PRINCESS & THE PEA

Task 1. Drag & drop the words

prince

princess

queen

wet

storm

mattress

pea

sleep

ladder

marry

Task 2. Regular Past Tense - write the correct form of the verb adding "-ed".

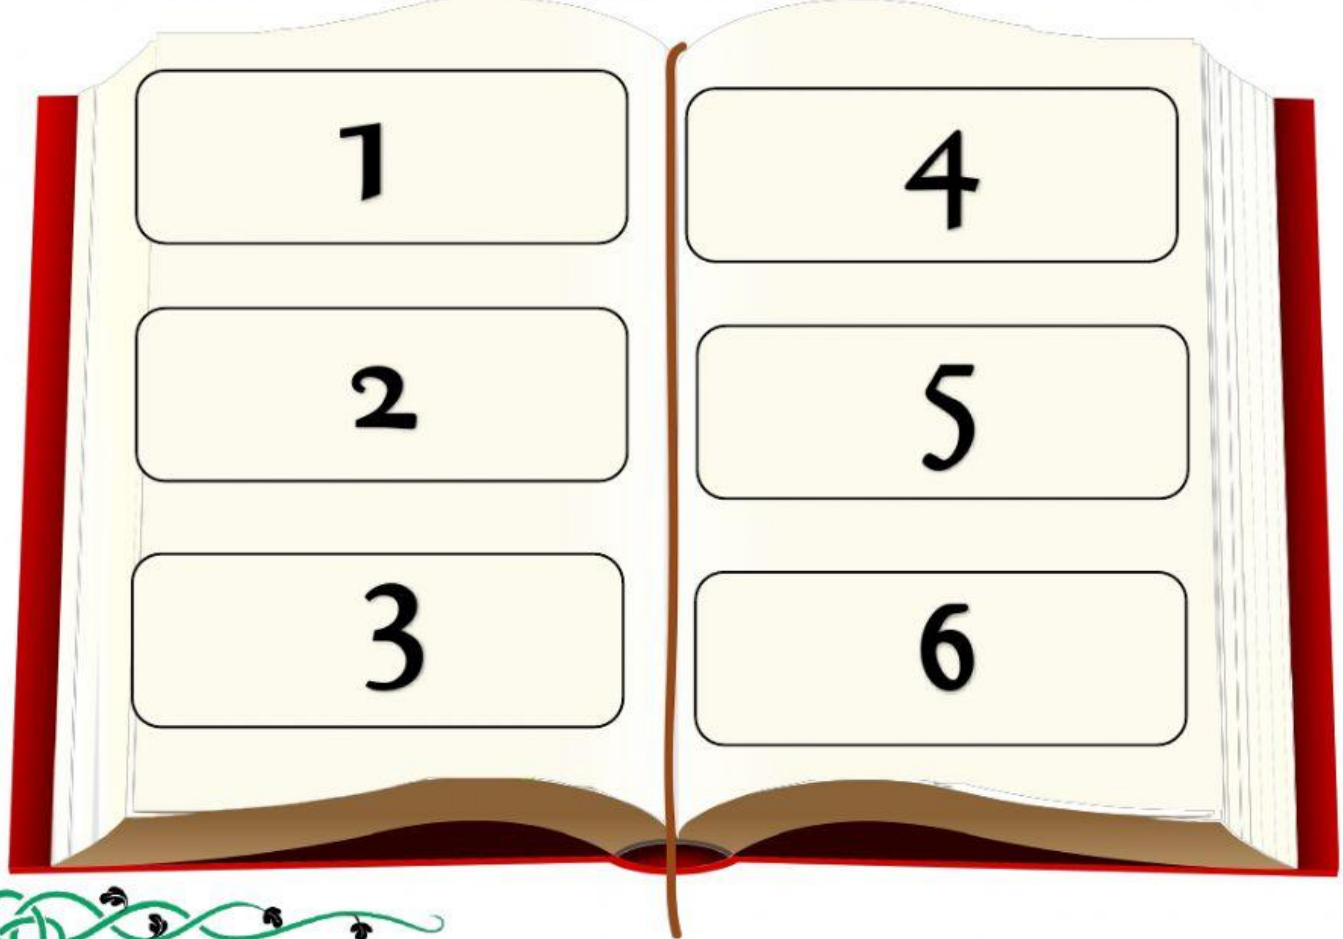

1. The prince _____ (want) to marry a real princess.
2. He _____ (travel) the world looking for a real princess.
3. The wet princess _____ (insist) that she was a real princess.
4. The princess _____ (climb) a ladder to get into bed.
5. The little pea at the bottom of the mattresses _____ (bother) the princess.

Task 3. Look at the picture and read the sentences. Then click "YES" or "NO"

- | | | |
|--|-----|----|
| 1. The weather is stormy. | YES | NO |
| 2. The princess has a pink dress. | YES | NO |
| 3. The horse is in front of the castle. | YES | NO |
| 4. There are four butterflies. | YES | NO |
| 5. The prince is dancing. | YES | NO |
| 6. There is an apple tree between the prince and the princess. | YES | NO |

Task 4. Drag and drop the parts of the story in the storybook in the correct order.

The queen didn't believe her so she put 20 mattresses on the girl's bed with a pea at the bottom.

The prince was sad because he couldn't find a real princess until one stormy night.

And they lived happily every after.
THE END

Once upon a time and prince wanted to marry a real princess.

A pretty girl came to the castle. She looked terrible because of the storm. "I am a princess" she said.

The princess couldn't sleep because of the pea. The prince realized she was a real princess and he married her.