

WILL & GOING TO

READ THE SENTENCES WRITE WILL OR VERB TO BE + GOING TO, AND THEN CHOOSE THE USE YOU'RE GIVING EACH SENTENCE.

1. Don't worry, he _____ take little Johnny to tennis practice.
2. I _____ buy a car when I find a good deal.
3. Look at the tree! It _____ fall.
4. The phone's ringing. That _____ be my granny calling.
5. I _____ email her as soon as I finish with this meeting.
6. My parents _____ to Thailand next summer.
7. I'm sure we _____ have better sales next year.

READ THE TEXT ABOUT SOMEONE'S HOLIDAYS. FILL IN THE GAPS WITH WILL OR GOING TO. BE SURE TO ADD VERB TO BE WHEN NEEDED

Dear Halle,

How have you been? It's been ages since we last talked. There's not much going on at the moment. But I am thrilled about my upcoming holidays, my family and I 1 _____ to a fabulous destination. Although I know that weather's been crazy this past year; in a split of a second a sunny day can turn into a hurricane. However, I believe I 2 _____ make the most of my time and adapt to the circumstances.

Let me tell you about our schedule. Firstly, I 3 _____ be traveling to a breathtaking beach destination. While I hope for sunny skies and gentle breezes, I know that there might be days of rain or storms. If the weather doesn't cooperate, I 4 _____ embrace the opportunity to explore local indoor attractions. I 5 _____ also indulge in delicious local cuisine. After all, you know how much I love looking for hidden cafés and restaurants in every city I visit.

In addition to the beach, I 6 _____ explore a vibrant city. Here, too, I understand that inclement weather might dampen some of my outdoor activities. Nevertheless, I know I 7 _____ make the best of the situation. If it's raining, I 8 _____ take the opportunity to visit art galleries or delve into the city's rich cultural heritage by visiting its historical sites.

Lastly, I booked a countryside hiking expedition. I think I 9 _____ be able to visit a vineyard. You know how I love drinking wine. Besides, being a bit tipsy 10 _____ give an element of excitement and make the adventure even more memorable.

Basically, I am confident that with a positive mindset, I 11 _____ find alternative activities, embrace indoor opportunities, and still create unforgettable memories. Nothing 12 _____ ruin my holidays!

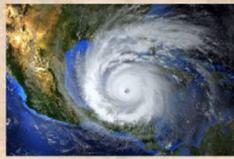

Please hit me up as soon as you get this mail, I want to know what you 13 _____ to do this summer holidays.

XOXO

Your dear Friend.

LOOK AT THE FOLLOWING PICTURES. NAME THEM
USING THE PURPLE WORDS

READ THE NEXT DEFINITIONS. MATCH THEM WITH THE ADJECTIVES IN GREEN

- A bit drunk
- Soft, tender
- Extremely happy about something
- Grand, luxurious
- Something you won't forget
- Food that tastes great
- That takes your breath away
- Having a lot of money or valuable possessions
- Very strange or foolish
- Energetic, full of enthusiasm

