

GRAMMAR

● Subject pronouns

1 Write the plural of the underlined pronouns.

Singular	Plural
1 She 's a singer.	They 're singers.
2 You 're a student.	They 're students.
3 I can't sing.	They can't sing.
4 It 's a computer.	They 're computers.
5 He 's fourteen.	They 're fourteen.
6 You can swim	They can swim

2 Complete with the subject pronouns.

I it she they we you

A Can (1) you speak English?

B Yes, we can. (2) we 're from Canada. I'm from Ontario, and (3) we 're from Quebec.

A (4) I 'm from Ireland.

B Really? My mother's Irish. (5) she 's from Dublin. (6) it 's a beautiful country!

● be: present simple

3 Complete with the affirmative of be.

- I 'm from Australia.
- You are into classical music.
- It is my favourite book.
- Marvel comics are fantastic.
- Helen is a fan of horror films.
- We are from Spain.

4 Complete with the negative of be.

- We aren't teachers. We're students!
- This film isn't good. It's terrible!
- You aren't a fan of Chelsea. You're a fan of Liverpool!
- They aren't from Spain. They're from Mexico!
- I am not Tomas. I'm Toni!
- She isn't sixteen. She's fifteen!

5 Complete with the contracted forms.

'm 'm not 're aren't 's 's 's isn't

My (1) name 's Hanna and (2) I 'm from Sanok, in the south of Poland. My parents (3) are from Sanok originally. (4) They are from Warsaw, the capital city.

I'm really into music, but (5) I 'm not a big fan of pop music. I like country music, and my favourite (6) group is the Dixie Chicks. But my number one thing (7) is music. (8) It is my computer. I love the Internet!

