Re: Office supplies order

Date: March 20

Dear Ms. Chambers,

We have a standing order tilted by Champion Office Supply, with automatic delivery to us on the first day of each month. I am writing because we would like to modify our usual order for upcoming month as outlined on the attached form. Please note that we would like the ink that we have ordered in the past to be replaced by a different brand as indicated. Furthermore, we would like to add item WB918 to the order only this month as we have recently hired new attorneys and we are preparing additional office spaces for them. Please use our credit card account that you have on file.

We continue to be pleased with the quality of your merchandise, especially the recycled stationery products with our firm's logo.

Thank you.

Reginald Lee, Office Manager

Re: Office supplies order

Date: March 21

Dear Mr. Lee,

We would be happy to accommodate your requests as outlined on your order form.

Unfortunately, however, we are currently out of the Witeglow brand whiteboards, I can recommend another brand of magnetic whiteboard that has been well liked by other customers, called Stellar Whiteboards. They are considered the best on the market. They are typically $85 each, but I am willing to provide four at the same cost of the Witeglow brand, if you would like to give them a try. Just let me know. Thank you.

Kind regards,

Imogen Chambers

From: Rowan Charles <info@contemporarycatering.com>
Date: March 20
Subject: Your upcoming event

Dear Mr. Stoltzfus,

I received your inquiry about your company banquet on April 30. According to the information you submitted, you are interested in knowing the cost to cater an event of 75 guests, but it depends on what meal you select. I've attached our brochure for you.

I want to inform you about two things regarding this brochure:

- 1) We no longer provide the vegetable lasagna as an option. The brochure hasn't been updated to reflect that change yet.
- 2) The prices listed at the bottom of each package include the delivery and setup of the food at your venue. In addition, you will receive complimentary coffee, tea, and soft drinks for your guests. However, we do not provide people to serve the food. If you would like us to fill this role at your event, we will charge a separate rate for that service.

Please let me know which package you prefer.
