

LEARNING UNIT # 2

Competence: Writing 1st Writing Task

Ask Anita!

Dear Anita,

My family and I moved to the United States last month and our friends tell us that we should leave a tip when we eat at a restaurant. How much money should we leave for the waiter or waitress after we finish our meal? Should we leave a tip in all kinds of restaurants, even fast food restaurants? And if we don't like the service, is it really necessary to leave a tip?

Emma

Dear Anita,

My friends and I want to open our own restaurant! My friend Chris is going to be the waiter, Dan is going to be the cashier, and I'm going to be the chef. We want to open the restaurant close to the college where we study – our classmates say they are always hungry. Can you give us any advice about the kind of atmosphere the restaurant should have, and the kind of food we should have on the menu? And do you think opening a restaurant is a good idea?

Michael

Dear Anita,

I live right next to a restaurant and I'm one of their best customers. I usually eat dinner there three or four times a week. I enjoy eating there but I think I spend too much money, and I think some of the food I order (like pizza and hamburgers) isn't very healthy. On the other hand, I'm too tired to cook after I come home from work. What advice can you give me?

Martha

7-8 EXPRESSING ADVICE: HAD BETTER

(a) My clothes are dirty. I $\left\{ \begin{array}{l} \text{should} \\ \text{ought to} \\ \text{had better} \end{array} \right\}$ wash them.	Had better has the same basic meaning as should and ought to : "This is a good idea. This is good advice."
(b) You're driving too fast! You'd better slow down.	Had better usually implies a warning about possible bad consequences. In (b): If you don't slow down, there could be a bad result. You could get a speeding ticket or have an accident.
(c) You'd better not eat that meat. It looks spoiled.	NEGATIVE: had better not
(d) I'd better send my boss an e-mail right away.	In speaking, had is usually contracted: d .

Verbs following than are also in the simple form.

Dear Ms. Jackson:

I am writing in regards to my registration for the Fall Semester 2019.

I registered 3 weeks before the Fall Semester, on July 20th. I registered for 2 elective courses: "Frequent and Easy On-line Tools" and "How to Make the Most of your Budget". In addition, I registered for 2 of my major classes: "Accounting II" and

"Human Resources Theories."

The total cost for my registration was for $2400. However, the invoice #A-125c

I received came up to $3200 to my surprise! I had given my credit card for payment, and that amount was deducted from my bill this month. I am bewildered and upset because I have been charged for additional services I have not requested and cannot afford.

Therefore, I request an immediate reimbursement for the additional charges, the payment of the 15% interest fee charged by my credit company, and a possible discount on the tuition costs for the inconvenience caused. I am attaching a copy of my credit card bill for your information.

I look forward to hearing from you within one business week since this must be settled with my credit card company before my next monthly bill.

Sincerely,

Sammy Green
