Task 3: Read the passage below about football. Answer the question below about the text.All About Football

People have been playing football for centuries. It began in Greece and was a very rough game. Football has been played in the United States since 1869. Two colleges played together. Now, players wear helmets, pads, and follow rules so the game is more safe to play. Kids play now, too. People watch football on television and have parties when their favorite teams do well.

Football is a sport where two teams play against each other on a field. Players can throw the football, run with the football, and score touchdowns! Touchdowns are worth 6 points. Teams can also score points by kicking a field goal. There are so many football teams. What is your favorite team?
