Fill in with these words, there is one extra:

emit, thrifty, dispose of, hazard, priority, well-off, relief, worship, accurately, hostile, unique, flawless, ransom, arise, extraordinary, float, adapt, reassure and provide.

1. It is important to _____ items properly to avoid environmental damage.
2. The firefighter's _____ saved several lives during the emergency.
3. The wealthy businessman was _____ and lived a lavish lifestyle.
4. The factory's failure to follow safety regulations posed a serious _____ to the workers.
5. The weather report predicted that heavy rain would _____ from the dark clouds.
6. The skilled artist painted a _____ portrait that captured every detail of the subject.
7. The airline provided _____ to the passengers affected by the flight delay.
8. The diverse group of people gathered to _____ their respective faiths.
9. The novel's plot took an _____ turn that kept the readers engaged till the end.
10. The swimmer's body seemed to effortlessly _____ on the water's surface. Answer: float
11. The company had to _____ to the changing market demands to stay competitive.
12. The parents tried to _____ their child after a frightening incident.
13. The journalist reported the news _____ and provided accurate information
14. The shopkeeper had a _____ collection of antique furniture.
15. The group of friends pooled their money to pay the _____ for their kidnapped friend.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

16. The issue _____ when the two parties failed to reach a compromise.
17. The new employee's _____ attitude made it difficult for others to work with him.
18. The scientist _____ valuable data to support his research findings.

LIVEWORKSHEETS