Stress to emphasize meaning

1. Match the sentences with their meaning.

STATEMENTS

1. We're having dinner at Mary's PARents' house tonight.

2. We're having dinner at MARy's parents' house tonight.

3. We're having DINner at Mary's parents' house tonight.

4. WE'RE having dinner at Mary's parents' house tonight.

5. We're having dinner at Mary's parents' house toNIGHT.

MEANINGS

_____ The dinner is at Mary's parents' house, not someone else's parents' house.

_____ The dinner is tonight, not tomorrow.

_____ Both of us are going, not just me.

_____ The dinner is at Mary's parents' house, not Mary's house.

_____ We're having dinner, not lunch.

STATEMENTS

1. You should avoid ARguing about politics.

2. You should avoid arguing about POLitics.

3. YOU should avoid arguing about politics.

4. You should aVOID arguing about politics.

5. You SHOULD avoid arguing about politics.

MEANINGS

_____ It's OK to discuss politics. Just don't argue about it.

_____ It's OK for other people to do it, but not you.

_____ You should take special care to not argue about politics.

_____ Any other topic would be fine to argue about, just not politics.

_____ My very strong advice to you is this: Don't argue about politics.

LIVEWORKSHEETS