SATURDAY JUNE 14

Wave of Thefts Worries Locals

Last summer, Lakeland residents reported only two criminal acts. This year, twelve thefts were reported in June alone. "I felt someone bump into me and my purse was gone," local woman Shirley Andrews explains. "He got my wallet and other personal items. I didn't even see him."

Sheriff Bill Grady shared his thoughts with us. "The police will do what they can. But people need to protect themselves from being victimized." So, what does Sheriff Grady suggest? "Awareness is important. Pickpockets work together to create distractions and then take advantage." Fortunately, Grady points out, pickpockets are not typically violent. "Just leave your valuables at home," Grady says. "Lakeland is still a safe place."
