How to Plan a Trip

There are many options for accommodation when you are on vacation. Most people stay in hotels; these can be 1. ____ or expensive, they usually have several floors, and they may have a restaurant or swimming pool. A motel is like a cheap hotel, usually 2. ____, with only one or two floors, and you can park your car in front of your room. Or you can stay in a Bed and Breakfast. These are small, 3. ____ and cozy places that offer a place to sleep and breakfast in the morning. Often these are run by families or individuals, and they may only have a 4. ____ rooms.

Budget travelers often choose to stay in hostels; these are cheaper than other types of accommodation because they don't offer many amenities. In European cities especially, budget hostels are 5. ____ to find; you will often see several hostels on the same street. Hostels are 6. ____ for young backpackers, who can stay in dorm beds in a room with several other travelers, for a fraction of the cost of a hotel room.

Rooms can be booked online, via telephone, or you can show up in person and try your luck. However, it's always a 7. ____ idea to call ahead and check to see if there are any vacancies. That way, you waste less time and can spend more time sightseeing!
