

A Day at the Beach

It's a sunny day, and Maria is excited because she is _____ (going to/will) the beach with her family. She packs her bag with all the things she needs. She puts on her _____ (bikini/sandcastle) and slips into her _____ (flip-flops/cap). Her dad wears his _____ (trunks/bikini), and her mom carries an _____ (umbrella/spade) for shade.

At the beach, Maria and her brother build a sandcastle using a _____ (spade/sunglasses). They apply _____ (sun cream/sunglasses) to protect their skin from the sun. They also have a _____ (bucket/float) to play with in the water. Maria's dad relaxes on a _____ (towel/float) while wearing his _____ (sunglasses/beach).

After some fun in the water, Maria's mom buys everyone an _____ (ice cream/beach) treat. They enjoy the refreshing flavours while sitting under the _____ (umbrella/towel) to stay cool.

As the day comes to an end, Maria and her family pack their things and head home. They had a wonderful day at the beach, and they are already thinking about when they _____ (going to/will) visit the beach again.

Instructions:

1. Choose the correct word.
2. Decide whether to use "going to" or "will" in each sentence.
