Who knows you better, your family or your friends?

In our weekly test, single people who are looking for a partner ask their mother and their best friend to help.

This week's single man is Richard Taylor, a 26-year-old musician from Southampton. His mother Meg chooses one girl, and his best friend Danny chooses another. Then Richard goes on a date with each girl. Which girl does he prefer? Who knows him better, his mother or his best friend?

I usually work in England, but sometimes I work abroad too. When I'm not working, I like going to the cinema and eating in nice restaurants. I'm not very sporty and I don't do any exercise, but at least I don't smoke.

I think I'm open and friendly—I get on well with most people—but I'm sometimes quite shy too. For example, I don't like going to parties. I prefer to meet friends individually or in small groups. I like intelligent, funny women who make me laugh and ideally who love music. Physically, I prefer women with dark hair who are not taller than me. And I like women who are good listeners.

I'm sure that my friend Danny knows me better than my family because we often talk about girlfriends and the problems we have. I don't usually talk to my family about that kind of thing. My mom always says that I look for the wrong kind of girl, but that's what mothers always say.
