

Giving instructions using modals

Choose the best options.

When applying for external funding, it is essential for applicants to follow the correct procedures. You 1._____ aware of the criteria and submit all required documents.

Before submitting an application, you must double-check the deadlines and 2._____ them, as late submissions will not be accepted.

When writing a proposal, it is suggested that you clearly state your objectives and goals. Also, you 3._____ vague language. It is also crucial to prepare a detailed budget that includes all expenses related to the project.

To meet the requirements, you 4._____ evidence of your organisation's credibility. For example, you could provide letters of support from relevant stakeholders.

Finally, once the application is submitted, you 5._____ patient and be prepared to give a presentation or attend an interview if requested.