

a) Complete with the correct Indefinite Pronoun.

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                      |                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |    |    |    |
| I saw _____at the bus stop,but I didn't knowwho it was.       | I'm hungry. Iwant _____to eat.                                     | There's _____in the classroom.                                           | They have been _____in the world.                                         |
|    |    |    |    |
| _____ worked hard atthe project.                                        | There's trash _____at the beach.                                        | She isn't going _____right now.                                          | I have _____I need to makethe cake.                                  |
|  |  |  |  |
| I can't do _____if I'm on vacation!                                     | My mom gave me _____for my birthday.                                    | But mygrandfather didn'tgive me _____.                              | There was _____in the house.                                              |