

Name: _____

Date: .../.../2023

Class: S5

Tel: 034 200 9294

LESSON 8: WEATHER VOCABULARY & PET INSTRUCTION

A. VOCABULARY

No.	Word	Meaning	No.	Word	Meaning
1	blizzard (n)	bão tuyết lớn	8	gloomy (adj)	âm u, u ám
2	blustery (adj)	có gió dữ dội	9	hail (n)	mưa đá
3	drizzle (n)	mưa phùn	10	hurricane (n)	bão lốc xoáy
4	drought (n)	hạn hán	11	lightning (n)	tia chớp
5	earthquake (n)	động đất	12	thunderstorm (n)	cơn dông
6	flood (n)	lũ lụt	13	tornado (n)	lốc xoáy
7	foggy (adj)	nhiều sương mù

Chú thích: n = noun: danh từ; v = verb: động từ; adj = adjective: tính từ

B. HOMEWORK

I. Circle the answer that can replace the underlined part.

0. People were scared of a sudden, violent shaking of the earth's surface.

- (A) an earthquake B. a lightning C. a blizzard D. a tornado

1. It rains lightly in spring, so sometimes people don't need an umbrella.

- A. There is hail B. There is drizzle C. There is flood D. It's gloomy

2. He drove too fast and it was very dangerous because there was a lot of fog.

- A. it was gloomy B. it was foggy C. it was blustery D. there was a hail

3. There was a long period of time with no rain in Africa, so they couldn't grow plants.

- A. a flood B. a thunderstorm C. a hurricane D. a drought

4. Look! Some small balls of ice are falling from the sky.

- A. There is a drizzle B. It's raining C. It's foggy D. There is a hail

5. I couldn't keep the hat on my head because there were very strong winds.

- A. it was foggy B. it was gloomy C. it was blustery D. there was a hail

II. Complete the missing words, then put them into the correct column.

f_g_y	e_r_t_q_a_e	g_o_m_	_l_i_z_a_d	f_l_o_o_d	d_i_z_l_
-------	-------------	--------	------------	----------------------	----------

About natural disasters	About the weather
 flood  , _____ _____	_____ _____

III. Write the correct letter.

What are they trying to escape from?

A - All farmers have to travel far to bring water back for irrigation (sự tưới tiêu). They have to do so because there hasn't been any rain for months.

B - The building is shaking and the ceiling (trần nhà) of some rooms is collapsing (sụp đổ). All people inside are finding a table to hide under.

C - There is a thunderstorm, but some children are standing under a tree. People over there have to pull them out, or else they are in danger of being struck (bị đánh trúng).

D - The water level is rising very quickly. Many families are climbing onto the roof of their houses.

E - The winds are so strong and the snow is covering the sight (tầm nhìn) of the visitors. They need to come down the hill quickly before they are stuck in the snow.

- | | | |
|----|---------------|-------------------------------------|
| 0. | a flood | ☒ |
| 1. | an earthquake | ☐ |
| 2. | a lightning | ☐ |
| 3. | a blizzard | ☐ |
| 4. | a drought | ☐ |

IV. Fill in the blanks. There are two extra options.

thunderstorm	drizzle	hail	tornado
flood	blizzard	gloomy	hurricanes

0. A tornado moves in a circle with very strong winds.

1. Be careful! There is a _____ and the ice can hit your head.

2. The _____ has covered all the trees on the hill with snow.

3. Lightning from a _____ unluckily struck two people last night.

4. We visited London on a _____ day with dark clouds.

5. There have been many _____ this month, so we have to fix the roof very often.

V. Rearrange the following sentences.

0. lit up / Lightning / the / sky. / night

⇒ Lightning lit up the night sky.

1. United States / ripped into / last night. / Tornadoes / the Southern

⇒ _____.

2. difficult / to / It is / a foggy road. / go through

⇒ _____.

3. blustery day. / enjoy / didn't / We / that cold,

⇒ _____.

4. through/ We/ the drizzle./ walked home

⇒ _____.

5. The / does not / until November. / end / hurricane season

⇒ _____.

VI. Read the passage, then write True, False or Not Given.

Reporter Clara Jackson:

"It's not such good news for the North-west this week, I'm afraid: more wet weather, and not a lot of sunshine. Some of today's showers (trận mưa) will be heavy - and even thundery in Manchester and across the Pennines. Leeds will escape the thunderstorms, and there will be only drizzle throughout the rest of the day and tonight.

Elsewhere it becomes dry today, but with some foggy patches (khu vực sương mù) towards Wales. In England, tomorrow morning will see a dry, bright start in most places, with high temperatures throughout the week. We might see one or two thunderstorms appearing as the week goes on, with temperatures everywhere at 29 to 30 degrees.

By the weekend, unfortunately, the dry weather will make way for (nhường đường cho, nhường chỗ cho) mostly cloudy skies and rain. The rain will move from Scotland, down towards the North and reach the South coast by Saturday afternoon. There can also be a hail in the evening on the South coast. The worst case may happen on Sunday, as there are hurricanes in some areas."

0. It will be thundery in Birmingham.

Not Given

1. Leeds will not escape the thunderstorms.

2. There will be drizzle in Leeds.

3. It is foggy in Wales.

4. In England, there might be three or four thunderstorms.

5. There can be a hail in France.

Part 3Questions 11–20

Look at the sentences below about a family trip to see dolphins.

Read the text on the opposite page to decide if each sentence is correct or incorrect.

If it is correct, mark A on your answer sheet.

If it is not correct, mark B on your answer sheet.

-
- 11 Paul has family connections with the place he first visited in New Zealand.
 - 12 Paul and his family chose to go to Kaikoura as part of their tour.
 - 13 As soon as Paul arrived in Kaikoura he knew he might see some dolphins there.
 - 14 The weather got worse during Paul's boat trip.
 - 15 Paul had expected to go swimming closer to land.
 - 16 Paul was beginning to feel unhappy about the trip until someone saw the dolphins.
 - 17 Paul believed the dolphins were inviting him to join them in the water.
 - 18 Paul felt that he had failed to communicate with the dolphins.
 - 19 One dolphin copied exactly what Paul did in the water.
 - 20 Paul was pleased when the guides finally called them back onto the boat.

Dolphin Trip

By Paul Hannan

My family have always been huge fans of New Zealand – my mum comes from the capital – so we saved up and went for a holiday there. We started with a week in the city she grew up in. After that, we toured around for a while before ending up by chance in Kaikoura, a small town on the coast. The first evening it seemed a rather dull place, but the next day I remembered what I'd read about it – that it was often possible to see dolphins and whales there! I'll always think of Kaikoura as the place where I finally achieved my lifelong ambition – to swim with wild dolphins.

My family and I set off on a dolphin trip on a cold, grey day with a number of other people on a small boat. However, the sky soon turned blue, and we raced across the waves in the sunshine until we finally reached the place where we were supposed to go swimming. To my surprise, this was more than 40 km from land. I was quite cold by this time, and really starting to wonder why my family had made me come all the way out there, when suddenly someone shouted 'Dolphins!'.

All I could see were fins everywhere – there were more than a hundred dolphins, all swimming towards our boat! Many of them were jumping around in the water as if they were asking us to come and play. I put on my snorkel and jumped into the sea. Everywhere I looked, all I could see was dolphins, swimming under me and round me. Then I remembered the guide had told us to make sounds in the water to attract them. So I did and actually heard them making similar sounds, as if they were trying to answer me. I even made eye contact with one dolphin, and watched it carefully as I swam round in a circle. Amazingly, the dolphin almost followed me, but then changed its mind, although it kept eye contact with me all the time. It really made me realise how intelligent and beautiful these creatures are.

Then after an hour of swimming the guides called us to get back onto the boat. Although I had enjoyed myself, I was keen to leave the water by then as I was very cold. As I got dry I noticed that everyone on board was smiling and I realised what a very special moment we'd had.

I'll never forget that experience, and Kaikoura will always have a special place in my heart.

I. Match.

0. Hannah promised to join our party, but she didn't _____.

1. Peter has _____, so he has more responsibilities to take.

2. We had nothing in the fridge to eat, so we decided to _____ yesterday.

3. Many players _____ to their hometown after going abroad to play football.

4. The driver _____ after having a bad accident, so people had to call an ambulance.

5. Coffee _____ around the world and it is one of the best drinks to start your day.

~~A. show up~~

B. eat out

C. come back

D. passed out

E. catches on

F. grown up

0 - ...A...	1 -	2 -	3 -	4 -	5 -
-------------	-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------

II. Write the correct phrasal verb that can replace the underlined part, using the given clue. You may have to change the form of some verbs.

0. Many people have meals in a restaurant very often because they cannot cook. (eat)
_____ eat out _____

1. My teammate didn't give up after hurting his leg and returned to the game. (back)

2. Every week, my family leaves Boston to visit my uncles in Miami. (over)

3. All students were quiet when the angry teacher entered the classroom. (in)

4. The man managed to live with little money because some neighbors helped him. (by)

5. When the alarm rang, he got out of bed very quickly. (get)
