Indicate whether these sentences are correct or contain a comma splice.

1. The evening was too cold to walk, they decided to take a taxi.
2. She was not an outstanding success at her first job, nor was she a complete failure.
3. I ran over some broken glass in the park lot, it did not puncture my tires.
4. They should have walked two kilometers every day, they might have improved their fitness.
5. She sent him a love message which he immediately answered in person.
6. There used to be turtles in that pond, I remember seeing them in the past.
7. Shakespeare uses different rhetorical devices in his writing, for example, the apostrophe is a device by which a speaker stops addressing a whole audience to address a single person.
8. Tiny storms cannot be identified as hurricanes; therefore, they are called neutercanes.

LIVEWORKSHEETS