Examinee's test booklet

Occasionally in your academic program, you will need to read aloud, for example, to quote from sources or to refer to a part of a reading. In this task you will be asked to read the article you spoke about in the previous task.

PEI post-secondary student gets a boost

CHARLOTTETOWN. Prince Edward Island has developed new initiatives, including a $2-million award program, to help its post-secondary students.

Awards of $600 each will go to 800 third- and fourth-year students at the University of Prince Edward Island. Four hundred students in their second year at Holland College will also be eligible.

The government also announced it will delay the interest on student loans for up to 60 months in cases where graduates are either unemployed or underemployed.
