Look carefully at these sentences and select parallel structures only.

- They either obey the manager or get fired.
- Either they obey the manager or get fired.
- Either they obey the manager, or they get fired.
- Whether drunk or when he was sober, he liked to pick a fight.
- Whether drunk or sober, he liked to pick a fight.
- The team not only practices at 6 a.m. during the week but also scrimmages on Sunday afternoons.
- Not only does the team practice at 6 a.m. during the week, but it also scrimmages on Sunday afternoons.
- Not only practicing at 6 a.m. during the week, but the team also scrimmages on Sunday afternoons.

LIVEWORKSHEETS