

Top 5 | Food markets

Food markets are great places to find interesting local food. Here are our top five markets from around the world.

1 St. Lawrence, Toronto, Canada

St. Lawrence food market, in Toronto, is 200 years old. There are [] shops with every kind of meat and seafood.

2 Castries Market, St. Lucia

[] the island of St. Lucia in the Caribbean has a market famous for fish and fruit. Try the local sauce—it's very hot and spicy!

3 Kreta Ayer Wet Market, Singapore

[] lot of different food here and [] great food stalls upstairs. Go at around 6 a.m. and have [] tasty noodles for breakfast.

4 La Vucciria, Palermo, Italy

[] markets in the world with live music. But in Palermo, musicians play and sing as shoppers buy [] and fresh pasta.

5 Haymarket, Boston, US

This market is almost 200 years old and famous with food lovers. It's open during daylight hours every Friday and Saturday, but it's good to go early. [] food for sale late in the day!