

Coordinating Conjunctions

A coordinating conjunction is a conjunction that connects words, phrases, or clauses in a sentence.

The seven coordinating conjunctions are for, and, nor, but, or, yet, and so.

Example: Felicity bought apples and oranges at the market.

Complete each sentence with an appropriate coordinating conjunction.

- 1) That cardigan cannot be mine, _____ it is too long.
- 2) Let's meet on Wednesday mornings _____ Thursday afternoons.
- 3) I ate a full breakfast, _____ I feel hungry.
- 4) Brett tried hard to score a goal, _____ he did not succeed.
- 5) We didn't ask for a discount, _____ did the store offer one.
- 6) Janet is a vegan, _____ she doesn't eat animal products.
- 7) Mike put on his shoes _____ socks.
- 8) She had woken up late, _____ she missed the train.
- 9) My mom cooked pasta _____ chicken for dinner.
- 10) Kendra grew up in a small town, _____ she feels comfortable living downtown.