

Much-many, some-any

1. Complete each gap with much or many:

1. How tomatoes do we have in the fridge?
2. I don't have time to finish this project.
3. There aren't eggs in the fridge.
4. I can't make sandwiches.
5. Are there cookies left in the fridge?
6. There are clouds in the sky.
7. I don't eat meat.
8. There aren't shops in my town.
9. I don't have homework today.
10. We don't have books in our library.
11. She doesn't drink coffee.
12. How water would you like?

2. Complete each gap with some or any:

1. I have books in my library.
2. Are there sandwiches left?
3. I have magazines for you.
4. Kate doesn't have pencils on her desk.
5. Have we got sour cream?
6. We have butter for the sandwiches.
7. Have you got strawberries for the cake?
8. I don't have money in my wallet.
9. There are pears on the table.
10. We can watch movies on Netflix.
11. Let me give you advice.
12. Do you have flowers in the garden?

