One day at school.

At school, it's important to focus on learning and doing the right thing. However, some students make bad choices and end up in trouble. For instance, some students try to find ways to make things easier for themselves, like trying to _____ on tests. But this is not a good idea because if they _____ and _____, they can _____.

One day during lunchtime, a group of students was _____ leaving the school premises without permission. They didn't have a _____, so they weren't allowed to leave. Unfortunately, they were _____ by a teacher. As a result, they were _____ for their actions.

In contrast, there are students who always follow the rules and _____ recognition for their behavior. They patiently _____ for their turn, whether it's in the _____ or during lunchtime. These students understand that they _____ respect, and they _____ accordingly.

In conclusion, at school, it's essential to do the right thing, avoid trying to _____ or _____, and always behave appropriately. Those who _____ good behavior should be rewarded, while those who make poor choices must face the consequences of their actions. Following the rules and respecting others will create a positive and harmonious learning environment for everyone.

LIVEWORKSHEETS