

(6) WE ATE INSECTS

ACTIVITY 1: Read the text and answer the questions.

I teach food technology at Hillview School in Nottingham. Last week, I brought in some special food for my students: insects! British chefs began to cook with insects a few years ago.

I teach food technology at Hillview School in Nottingham. Last week, I brought in some special food for my students: insects! British chefs began to cook with insects a few years ago.

This is because they've got lots of protein, they're cheap, and there are a lot of them!

So what did my students think?

'My friends and I chose biscuits with insects on them. My friends thought they were OK - sweet and spicy. But I couldn't eat mine!' Jessica, 14

'Our teacher told us she sometimes cooks insects with rice and vegetables. I don't want to go for dinner at her house!' Max, 13

'I ate an apple covered in toffee and insects. It looked disgusting, but tasted nice - the insects were crunchy.' Nathan, 14

What different things did the students eat in the lesson?

Which students didn't like the idea of eating that?

Jessica

Max

Nathan
