

Name : _____ Class: _____ No.: _____

1. Which teachings is regarded as the core doctrine of Buddhism?
2. In the Triple Gem of Buddhism, which one refers to the teaching of Buddhism?
3. In the Triple Gem of Buddhism, which one refers to the monk who preserve and conserve the religion?
4. Which of the religious rites in Islam is being practice in order to be reminded of the difficulty of those who do not have enough food, water and shelter?
5. Which of the religious rites in Christianity is regarded as one of the sacraments of initiation where a Christian is poured or sprinkled water on his/her head?
6. Which of the religious activities in Islam requires all Muslims to pray five times a day to show respect to God?
7. In Civil Registration Act, within how many days does either parent of a newborn must notify the civil office?
8. In Civil Registration act, how long after the death shall the civil office be notified?
9. In Civil Registration Act, which of the following is the common requirement in notifying the civil office?
10. Based on the Narcotics Act of 1979, in which category does extremely dangerous narcotics such as heroin and amphetamine belong?
11. Based on the Narcotics Act of 1979, in which category does chemicals used for producing narcotics such as amphetamine and opium?
12. It is a system of rules and regulations to govern the behaviors of the members of a society.
13. It refers to chemical substance which affect the consumers' physiologically and mentally.
14. It refers to the rules and regulations formulated by the Mayor, municipal council and people with voting rights.
15. It refers to the Thai way of living passed from one generation to the next.
16. It refers to the cause of cultural change which from facilitating activities in daily life such as cars and machines.
17. It refers to the cause of cultural change from cultural borrowing, cultural mixing and cultural imitating.
18. It is the day the Buddha gave the "Ovada Patimokkha" to monks for the first time.
19. It is the day Buddha preached the First Sermon to the first five disciples.
20. Among the three roots of evils, this refers to a strong desire to possess something that belongs to someone else.