

8C Simple past: regular verbs and past time expressions

We use the simple past to talk about completed actions and situations in the past.

With regular verbs, we usually add -ed to the base form of the verb.

My brother worked as a waiter in London for two years.

In the past, children played with traditional toys.

My brother wanted a bike for his birthday.

I finished my exams last month.

Spelling rules for regular affirmative simple past -ed endings

We usually add -ed to the verb.

work ⇒ worked watch ⇒ watched

When a verb ends in e, we add -d.

dance ⇒ danced live ⇒ lived

When a verb ends in consonant + y, we change the y to i and then we add -ed.

study ⇒ studied try ⇒ tried

When a verb ends in vowel + y, we add -ed.

play ⇒ played enjoy ⇒ enjoyed

When a verb ends in consonant + vowel + consonant, we usually double the final consonant and add -ed.

stop ⇒ stopped plan ⇒ planned

We make the negative form of regular verbs with didn't + base form.

8.12 I / you / he / she / it / we / they

I enjoyed the meal.

I didn't enjoy the movie last night.

We watched the movie together.

We didn't watch TV.

Past time expressions

We often use past time expressions with the simple past to say when an action or situation happened.

I played tennis last week.

I played tennis yesterday morning.

I moved to Spain seven years ago.

In the 1920s, clothes were very different from now.

last	evening/night/week/month/year/spring/summer/fall/winter
yesterday	morning/afternoon/evening
two days three weeks five years	ago
in	1990/the 1930s/the 18th century

Look! We can say either "yesterday evening" or "last evening."
