

Back to school reading:

1. Read 3 texts and decide who is a "bad" student / a teacher / a "good" student:

John is a _____:

Going back to school in September is excellent. I am happy and I can't wait to see my classmates again. On the 1st of September I visit the celebration, present my teacher pretty colourful flowers and promise myself to get as much knowledge (знания) as I can.

Mark is a _____:

I don't like the end of the summer because it is sad. I feel bad in autumn because of (из-за) the cold, rains and school of course. It is hard for me to be an early bird and have 6 classes a day. Every Knowledge day (День Знаний) I wish the school year ends faster.

Helen is a _____:

It is difficult to believe that the summer is over. When I was a child, holidays seemed to last forever. But now I have to get ready for the school year in advance (заранее) since it is my job. I am always a bit nervous even more (даже больше) than the pupils.

2. Read the sentences and write the correct names:

- 1) _____ and _____ are not teachers.
- 2) _____ doesn't like the fact that summer ends.
- 3) _____ has a lot of things to do before the school year.
- 4) _____ wants to see the friends again.
- 5) _____ can't wake up early.
- 6) _____ is coming to school with a bouquet.
- 7) _____ is nervous all the time.

3. Look through the texts again and underline all the adjectives. Count them and write the number here: _____.

4. Think and say: Are you happy or sad about the new school year? Why (not)?
