TV programmes

1 a) Listen and say.

b) Do you watch TV? How often? What's your favourite programme? What is it about?

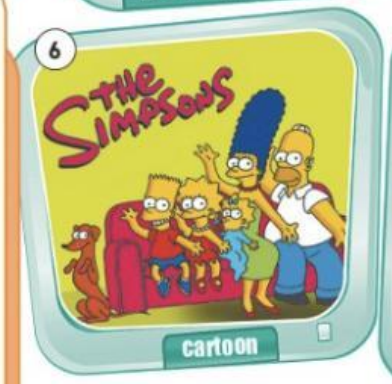

Reading

2 a) Read the first two exchanges in the dialogue. What are Molly and John deciding on?
Listen, read and check.

Molly: Hey, John! What's on TV?
John: It's a documentary about ships at war. It's very interesting.
Molly: Sounds boring to me. Is there anything better to watch?
John: Pass the TV guide and I'll check. OK – this finishes in 10 minutes, and then there's a game show on.
Molly: Oh, I like watching game shows.
John: Well, you can watch it without me. I hate them!
Molly: So, what else is there?
John: The police drama Criminal Minds is on Channel 3.
Molly: I love that show. Can we watch that?
John: It started 20 minutes ago; you won't know what's going on.
Molly: I'd rather watch that than what you're watching now.
John: OK, but I'm definitely watching Twilight after the news at 9 o'clock.
Molly: Great! I'd like to see that too.
John: Well, I'll be right back.
Molly: Where are you going?
John: I'm going to get some popcorn for the film.
