

Phrasal verbs

Complete each sentence with the correct form of go + one of the words from the box.
Use two of the words twice.

away back in on out

- I know the house isn't empty because I saw a man go in about an hour ago.
- I don't know what in that classroom, but they're making a lot of noise, whatever it is!
- I'm sorry I interrupted you. What were you saying? Please
- He was born in Scotland, but it's unlikely he to live there because he's lived in London for so long.
- I'm sorry, you can't see the manager because he on business for a few days.
- The green light on the front of the dishwasher Does that mean it's finished?
- I for a walk but if you need anything you can text me.

Complete each sentence with the correct form of turn + one of the words from the box.
Use two of the words twice.

down off on out up

- I always turn on the television as soon as I get home.
- We didn't expect good weather yesterday, but it to be quite warm.
- I hadn't seen Fernando since we were students, then one day he and asked me to have lunch with him.
- We weren't aware of it, but it that we had been staying at the same campsite as our friends.
- Can you the volume? It's very quiet.
- When the captain the engine, we could hear the birds in the trees by the river.
- Go and ask your grandfather to his radio. It's far too loud.

Complete each sentence with the correct form of take + one of the words from the box.
Use two of the words twice.

away down in off up

- The woman took off her jacket and began work.
- I had to pay £100 to have my old car
- Few of the criminals by the policeman's attempt to disguise himself as a beggar.
- The students were told to the posters which they had hung from their windows.
- My mother yoga last year to keep herself fit.
- I don't keep a lot of music on my laptop because it too much memory.
- We were offered drinks soon after the plane