

UNIT 5A AND UNIT 5B – VOCABULARY REVISION

EXERCISE 1: Top money tips for students – Use the vocabulary of unit 5A

1. Make sure you only what you have.
2. Track your spending to see what your money is really each week.
3. Then identify possible areas where you could expenses.
4. Be sure to savings each month for emergencies.
5. Avoidon luxuries, but do allow yourself a little fun.
6. Some people limit themselves by the same amount of cash every week. When it's gone, it's gone!
7. It probably goes without saying, but don't items you don't need!
8. Don't any unnecessary debt.
9. If you find yourself in difficulty, then with the highest interest rate first.
10. Manage your money or it will manage you!

Exercise 2: Complete the stories with the words given arrest charged found in sentenced

Case #1

Jen Gowers was cleaning the floor of a supermarket at 4.00 a.m., when Robber #1 broke ¹ to the building. Jen grabbed the closest thing, a banana, and threw it at the robber's head, as hard as she could. He ran away, but Jen was sure he wouldn't evade ² for long. The next day, the robber went to police and complained about the bruises on his face. Jen was ³ with assault. She couldn't afford to pay for a good lawyer and was ⁴ guilty by a jury. She was ⁵ to three months in jail.

left pleaded researched to trial

Case #2

At her ¹ Robber #2 said she just wanted money to buy lunch, and hadn't ² or planned her crime. She had entered a bookshop and screamed she would shoot if she wasn't given money. Sales staff refused because the gun in her bag was obviously just a banana. After she ³ the scene of the crime, she was caught eating her weapon 100 metres down the road. She ⁴ guilty to robbery and was sentenced ⁵ one year in jail.

broke caught evade in scene

Case #3

Robber #3, who stole a £20,000 ring from a jeweller's, was seen leaving the ¹ of the crime on security cameras. However, he managed to ² arrest by hiding inside a zoo, where he survived for ten days by eating bananas meant for the elephants. One night, he ³ into the zoo café, an alarm went off, and he was finally ⁴ At his trial, Robber #3 was sentenced to one year ⁵ jail for the robbery and two years for hiding in the zoo. He is only 16.