

Watch the video and complete the blank spaces.

The Vikings' homeland was _____: modern Norway, Sweden and Denmark. They travelled great distances, mainly by _____. Unlike common belief, they were not total barbarians, they had been _____ for some generations. However, since they were _____, they sacked and looted _____ and churches.

After watching the video, choose the correct option.

Which king set a tax paid to Viking raiders to stop attacking the coast and invading?

- ☐ Ethelred, "the Unready"
☐ Alfred, "the Great"

How was this tax called?

- ☐ Danegled
☐ Danelaw

Who signed a peace treaty to allow the Vikings to live in the North East of England?

- ☐ Leader Rollo
☐ King Alfred

How was this place called?

- ☐ Northumbria
☐ Danelaw

Read the information from the website below and decide whether the sentences are TRUE, FALSE or DOESN'T SAY (write your answer in CAPITAL letters).

The Historical Importance of the Vikings

The Vikings played a role in shaping modern fantasy and science fiction literature. _____

The Vikings had an influence on the development of parliamentary government. _____

The Vikings had no knowledge of astronomy or mathematics. _____

The Vikings' influence on governance was comparable to that of the Greeks and Romans. _____

Read the information from these links below and match the correct option to the blank space.

Britannica - Viking

Seek Scandinavia - What Language Did the Vikings Speak?

The Vikings spoke _____

The closest language to the Vikings is _____

The Vikings write in _____

Their society was organized into three classes _____

The Vikings raids had an impact on _____

Old Norse

Spanish

Architecture

Kings, Jarls and Thralls

Architecture

Kings, priests and popes

Futhork

Icelandic

Language

Good Luck!