I will always give credit to others for information I use from the Internet.

If I finish all my work, I will go onto my favorite sites without asking.

I will use the Internet only in ways the teacher has approved.

What I save in my school drive is my own business and stays private.

I can use information from the Internet any way I want as long as there are no bad words.

I can enter chatrooms, email my friends, and give my information on websites.

If I see something that is bad or inappropriate online, I will let an adult know immediately.

I will keep my hands on my own computer unless an adult tells me otherwise.

I will not damage the computer or anyone else's work.

I will share my password with others if they need to copy my work.
