

Homes and cities

6A

LANGUAGE

GRAMMAR: there is/there are, some/any, and prepositions of place

- 1 Complete the text with the words in the box.

there are are are there there's is any there some

So, this is my bedroom – I really like it!

1 _____ a window by my bed, so I can see outside. Across from the bed is a TV. I love watching TV in bed at night!

2 _____ some closets, too, for my clothes. 3 _____ any shelves? Yes, there 4 _____ – look! There are

5 _____ shelves next to the bed. There aren't 6 _____ books on them because I don't like reading.

7 _____ are lots of DVDs, though.

And 8 _____ there a desk? No, I do my homework downstairs on the big table!

- 2 Choose the preposition which is not correct.

- The boy is in front of / behind / between the door.
- The table is next to / across from / in a small window.
- The big chair is on / behind / in front of the closet.
- Is his book under / between / next to your shopping bag?
- My house is between / under / across from the park and the station.
- Two apples are in / under / on the table.
- Your cat is behind / on / between the sofa.
- Is your apartment next to / between / on those two stores?
- Our teacher is in / next to / in front of the big desk.
- Her phone is behind / in / under the TV.

VOCABULARY: Rooms and furniture

- 3 Order the letters to make words for rooms or furniture.

- Is there a TCLSEO in your bedroom?

- There are a lot of old books and toys in the TENSMEAB of our house.

- When it's sunny, I like sitting outside on the YLBCAON.

- We have got a AGGARE where my parents keep their car.

- Julia's in the THRABOMO. She's taking a shower.

- Their house has a OMORDEB upstairs, and one downstairs.

- 4 Write the words for the definitions.

- You look at your face in this.
m _____
- You can wash your clothes in this.
w _____ m _____
- This is a room at the top of a house.
a _____
- You walk up and down these.
s _____
- You eat food here.
d _____ r _____
- There's grass and sometimes flowers and trees here.
b _____
- You can do your homework here.
s _____
- You cook food here.
k _____

PRONUNCIATION: there's/there are

- 5  6.1 Say the sentences. How do we say there's and there are? Listen again and repeat.

- There's a bed in the living room.
- There are some chairs next to the table.
- Is there a sofa in your bedroom?
- Are there any shelves? No, there aren't.
- There are five tables in their house.
- Is there any food in the cabinet?
- There's a stove in the kitchen.
- There's no hall in his apartment.