

1 Listen and read. Where does Kylie want to go?

Jack: OK ... So now that we have our suitcases, where do you want to go?

Kylie: I want to go to the United States.

Jack: The United States is a big country, Kylie. Where do we want to go first?

Kylie: Let's go to California.

Jack: Is that near New York?

Kylie: No! California is in the west. New York is in the east. Look at this map.

Jack: Oh yes! What do you want to do in California?

Kylie: I want to go to Disneyland.®

Jack: Great idea! When do we want to leave?

Kylie: Look! Flight 305 leaves at one o'clock. Let's go right now!

2 True or false? Correct the false sentences.

- Kylie wants to go to California.
- California is in the east.
- New York is near California.
- Kylie doesn't want to go to Disneyland.
- Jack wants to go to Disneyland.

3 Look at the map of the United States. Talk to a friend.

Grammar Stop

Look at Activity 1. What verb do we use when asking about someone's preference?
Find and underline the questions using this verb in the dialog.

Now find the answers to the questions.

Where do you want to go?

I want to go to Texas.

Where's Texas?

It's in the south.