

WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER ABOUT GREAT BRITAIN FROM LAST YEAR'S LESSONS?

Put the right words in the right places.

Museums london food kings prime big europe ben chips history minister visit

Great Britain is a country in _____, made up of England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales. Its capital city is _____ with famous landmarks like the _____ clock tower and Buckingham Palace.

The country has an interesting history as it was once ruled by _____ and queens and had a big empire. Today, it is a democracy led by a _____.

There are many things to see and do in Great Britain such as visiting historic castles or _____ like the British Museum in London.

Great Britain is also known for its _____, including dishes such as fish and _____, shepherd's pie, roast beef with Yorkshire pudding, and afternoon tea.

Overall, Great Britain is a fascinating country with lots of _____, culture, and things to do. When you _____, try some delicious food and explore all the amazing sights!