News travels fast

These days, there's no excuse for not knowing what's happening in the world. (1) TV and on (2) radio, news programmes keep us up to date with all the important events. We read about problems on the other side of the world (3) the Internet as soon as they happen, and we see live pictures (4) the news 24 hours a day. Even personal news travels fast today. Whether we keep in touch (5) phone or e-mail, we're never more than a few seconds away from friends and family. The days when the only means of communication was (6) letter are gone forever. So, the next time you're (7) the phone, just remember how things have changed.

Exercise 3: Complete the sentences using the words in the box (to make prepositional phrases or idioms).
