

"The Nights"

Once upon a younger year
When all our                    disappeared
The animals inside came out to play
Went face to face with all our fears
Learned our lessons through the
Made memories we knew would never fade

One day my father—he told me
"Son, don't let it                    "
He took me in his arms, I heard him say

"When you get older
Your wild heart will live for younger days
Think of me if ever you're afraid"

He said, "One day you'll leave this world
So, live a life you will remember"
My father told me when I was just a child
"These are the nights that never die"
My father told me

"When thunder clouds start
Light a fire they can't put out
Carve your name into those shining stars"
He said, "Go                    far beyond the shores
Don't                    this life of yours
I'll guide you home no matter where you are"

One day my father—he told me
"Son, don't let it slip away"
When I was just a kid I heard him say

"When you get older
Your wild heart will live for younger days
Think of me if ever you're afraid"

He said, "One day you'll leave this world behind
So, live a life you will remember"
My father told me when I was just a child
"These are the nights that never die"
My father told me

"These are the nights that never die"
My father told me
My father told me
