Biography revision checklist

Answer the questions below about your partner's draft. If you answer "no" to any of these questions, those are the areas that your partner might need to improve. Tell your partner your feedback as you answer these questions.

Did your partner present information clearly and in a logical order?

Does each paragraph consist of a main idea supported by facts?

Did they include transition words to connect ideas?

Did they begin with a sentence that will interest the readers?

Did they use information from several different sources?

Did they draw a conclusion based on the information presented?

Did they keep the audience in mind by asking themself what they might already know or what they need to know?

Did they present factual information about the subject?

Write 2 to 3 sentences about what your partner did well:

Write 4 to 5 sentences about what your partner needs to improve:

LIVEWORKSHEETS