

Teacher, I don't understand...

-ED/-ING ADJECTIVES

1. Match the pictures with the sentences and decide the ending of the adjective (-ed/-ing):

- I think skiing is a very tir_____ sport. You have to practise for hours!
- Johnny feels relax_____ every time he plays his old guitar.
- Alex felt surpris_____ when his wife cooked his favourite dish for dinner.
- Bungee jumping is one of the most excit_____ extreme sports I know.
- My dog is so lazy I sometimes feel embarrass_____ about it. He's always sleeping or lying in the sun!
- I hate going to the dentist. I find it a really frighten_____ experience.
- Anne is a good student, and she will be disappoint_____ if she fails her exam.
- Tom was very excit_____ about winning the race.
- My friends think that going to school is really bor_____.

2. Complete the chart and then write sentences about you using the adjectives you have learnt

-ED adjectives: describe how people feel	-ING adjectives describe the cause of the feeling exciting
embarrassed annoyed confusing interesting bored worrying disappointed surprising

- I feel _____ when I am with my friends.
- I would be _____ if I slipped and fell in front of other people.
- Going on a school trip with my classmates will be really _____.
- It's _____ to visit museums.
- I've always been _____ in music.
- I would be _____ if I had to retake the course.
- My parents would feel _____ if I arrived home later than usual.
- Tom gave us a map, but it was so _____ that we got lost.
- My sister was _____ when I took her sweater without permission.

3. Underline the correct option:

- Basketball is a really excited/exciting sport.
- Jane was quite disappointed/disappointing when John cancelled the date.
- The teacher was annoyed/annoying when the students didn't do their homework.
- The film was so bored/boring that Ted fell asleep before the end.
- I lived a very embarrassed/embarrassing situation at the restaurant when I realized I had no money left to pay for my lunch.
- We were really frightened/frightening when we saw the man take a gun.
- I feel relaxed/relaxing when I have a good night sleep.