5 Read the dialogue and circle the correct words.

👤 Have you heard that there's a sale / coupon on at WP Arnold's? They're moving to a bigger building so there are loads of bargains / price tags.

👤 Yeah, but I've got enough stuff to wear and I can't really afford to buy anything at the moment.

👤 I can lend you some money if you like. Yesterday I took back a coat that I'd bought and got a receipt / refund, so I've got plenty of cash now.

👤 Don't worry. I'd prefer to owe / save up and spend my own money. I don't really like borrowing / lending from friends.

👤: OK, no problem.

I'm going to talk about the importance of spending more money on music in schools. 1____, I'm going to talk about the role of music in schools. 2____, I'm going to discuss how playing a musical instrument is good for your brain development. 3____, I'm going to talk about how playing a musical instrument helps you to do better at school and why schools should therefore pay for all students to learn an instrument. Then I'm going to 4____ up the main points before taking questions. I'd like to 5___ by saying that people generally don't think music is an important subject. The 6___ I say that is because music is not a main subject in most schools in the UK. Most children who sing or play a musical instrument do this in extra-curricular clubs at the end of the school day. Parents pay for these classes and they are expensive. 7___ of all, we need to ask ourselves, is music a subject that should just be a choice for students with rich parents? Or should it be compulsory in every school, as I believe it should, with schools paying for instruments for students to practise on? I'll 8 ___ you why I think that. Many studies show us that musical children get better scores in subjects like maths. This 9___ to my next point about music and the brain. If you play an instrument, it helps your brain development. There are a number of reasons why I 10___ this. First, ...
