

Phrasal verbs with "think"

1. Match the expressions with their definitions think

to consider something carefully, especially before making a decision think about/of

to believe something or have an opinion or idea think ahead

to consider all the possible details of something think back to think about a future event or situation and plan for it

think for oneself

to remember something that happened in the past

think over/through to remember or imagine someone or something think out to form opinions and make decisions without help from other people

2. Complete the sentences

1. I will think your proposal.

over

2. We have to think to the mysterious events of last summer.

ahead

3. We have thought a way to solve this problem.

out

4. Parents have to teach their children to think themselves.

about

5. If you know the cards of your opponent it's easy to think .

back

6. What do you think this idea?

for

3. Complete the sentences with prepositions about/of, ahead, back, over/through, for, out:

1. Think yourself, don't just follow the crowd.

2. Our new marketing strategy was thought really well.

3. I read this book two months ago. But I still think it.

4. Every time I look at these photos I think to my childhood.

5. I can't think any possible explanation of this accident.

6. We were in so much hurry that we didn't think buying the flour.

7. I wish I had thought and packed some food to bring with us.

8. That poem makes me think to my childhood.

9. I can't think anything I can write about.

10. Don't run away with this idea especially if you didn't think it .

11. Don't rush into making a decision but try to think of possible consequences.

12. Chess playing requires the ability to think a problem.

13. Team members said chess has taught them to think and be strategic

14. I really hope that you can think a better solution.

15. Tom's thought every angle—the plan is foolproof.

16. We had to change our plans and think a new idea.

17. You don't need to rely on other people opinions, you must think yourself.

18. I thought and brought a snack in case I got hungry.

19. She's intelligent and can think herself.

20. He thought to the time when he worked at the cafe.

21. The stories of his book are interestingly written and well thought .

22. Think it , and let me know in the morning if you want the job.

23. I try to encourage my students to think themselves.