

Coherence and Cohesion

of a nation depends on natural resources, but economic, but also the social development of a country suffers.
nations fail to invest sufficient funds, for one reason or another, Unfortunately, many skilled and healthy workforce.
in their health systems.
For example, the manufacturing industry needs healthy workers as do the financial and services sectors.
Otherwise, not only the A lack of investment in health care, however, health plays an equally important role. Every It is often said that the wealth country requires a now suffer from a workforce that cannot function efficiently.
means that these countries