

5.4 First Conditional

- 1 Match the beginning of a sentence from Column A with the correct ending from Column B.

Column A

- 0 If the weather's bad tomorrow D
- 1 I won't catch my flight —
- 2 Unless I practise more —
- 3 I'll never know if I like yoga —
- 4 If I've got enough money —
- 5 If Mum doesn't help me with my Maths —
- 6 No-one will come to my party —
- 7 I'll join the gym —
- 8 Unless my friend's mum offers me a lift —

Column B

- A I'll buy the new skateboard I saw in town.
- B I won't be able to get home tonight.
- C if I don't try it.
- D ~~I'll stay at home.~~
- E I won't be able to do this homework.
- F if it isn't too expensive.
- G if I don't get to the airport soon.
- H unless I send out the invitations.
- I I'll never be good enough to join the team.

- 2 Choose the correct options to complete the sentences.

- 0 If it's sunny tomorrow, we'll go / we go to the beach.
- 1 We'll only play football tomorrow if / unless the new stadium is open.
- 2 If it won't snow / doesn't snow soon, we'll cancel our skiing trip.
- 3 Unless I improve / will improve, my teacher won't ask me to join the volleyball team.
- 4 How will you / do you feel if your football team wins tomorrow?
- 5 We don't have / won't have basketball practice tomorrow if the teacher isn't at school.
- 6 If my parents give / will give me some money, I'll buy the snowboard I want.
- 7 If I don't pay my teacher tomorrow, I'll be / I won't be able to go on the school trip.

17

15