

Quiz: Rogue Wave Vocabulary

A. Draw a line to the right definition:

Porthole

A killer wave. A Monster wave extreme in size.

Rogue Wave

A platform on a boat that people walk on.

Swell

A long unbroken wave.

Navigation

Guiding a boat to a planned course.

Deck

A circular window on a ship.

B. Choose the correct word for each definition:

The main body of a ship, including the bottom, sides, and deck; but not the mast or engine.

Hull

Swell

Navigation

An opening allowed for passage.

Submerge

Hatch

Hull

When something is covered by water.

Rogue Wave

Starboard

Submerge

A place where food is cooked or prepared. The kitchen on a boat.

Galley

Hatch

Porthole

A nautical term for the left and right respectively. This is the right-side of a ship.

Porthole

Deck

Starboard