

FORMAL AND INFORMAL LANGUAGE
APOLOGY, SUGGESTION/RECOMMENDATION, INSTRUCTION

1. Select the correct expressions to the following conversations.
2. Check if there is either formal or informal language.

CONVERSATION 1: A student and a teaching assistant.

A: _____, em... Shall I talk to Mr. Harrison for a while?

B: _____. I regret to tell you he's on a meeting right now.

A: Seriously? Indeed, _____ help me out revising my score recipient again. Somehow, there is one score in my exam and another completely different already registered in the platform.

B: Well... _____ schedule a meeting to him again. Then, _____ having a screenshot of the platform and a photocopy of your exam. Just bring those documents to him and concretely explain your case.

A: Is there any other _____ I need _____?

B: _____ to him about this after 08.30, if you want to get a _____ result in your request. Mr. Harrison's always stressed during exam periods.

A: Perfectly clear! _____ for your advice. _____

CONVERSATION 2: A student and his classmate.

C: Hey! _____

A: Well... His assistant told me he was _____, as usual... Nah, he won't talk to me now, maybe tomorrow very early. _____ my score registration, otherwise I'll retake this subject again.

C: _____, don't panic. Just do what the assistant told you. Mr. Harrison doesn't like to be stressed out! So, he'll change your score.

A: True! _____

C: Yep!