
1 Complete the questions with much or many.

- 1 How _____ keys do you have with you?
- 2 How _____ phones are there in your house?
- 3 How _____ fruit do you eat every day?
- 4 How _____ change do you have in your pocket?
- 5 How _____ sugar do we need for the recipe?
- 6 How _____ books did you read last year?

2 Match the questions (1–6) in Exercise 1 with the answers (a–f).

- a I have a few. There's one for the house and two others. _____
- b Not much. About fifty grammes. _____
- c A lot. There are maybe four or five mobile devices in our house. _____
- d I don't have much. Maybe a dollar. _____
- e Not many! I think I read only one or two books last year. _____
- f I eat a little. I usually have a banana or an apple for breakfast. _____

3 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

- 1 We only have a few / a little coins.
- 2 There are some / much cool games on my new tablet.
- 3 There are a little / a lot of people in that restaurant.
- 4 I have a lot of / many free time today.
- 5 There isn't much / many milk. Can you buy some at the supermarket?
- 6 This bag doesn't have many / much pockets.