

PRESENT PERFECT SIMPLE AND SIMPLE PAST.

1-Reading. Read the text.

Henry Stuart has designed the famous video game 'Galaxy'. He has designed other video games too. He has always liked computer games. His games have sold all over the world and he has made a lot of money. With that money he has started his own charity. The charity project is called Computer Aid. Henry wants everybody to have the same fun he has had with computers so, many poor children have received modern computers in the annual computer festival.

The festival was in Central Park last weekend. Children of all ages had to prepare a computer project for the community. Then their projects were exposed, and the best works won the best computers. The rest of the participants won basic P.Cs and many games. Henry has become very popular among poor children and he has appeared on local radios and television studios. His project has had a great impact in the English society.
