

1. People who live with pets feel less [innovation / proposal / knowledge / loneliness] than those who live alone.
2. Scientists are working to develop technological [accompanies / faults / innovations / realities] that will save energy.
3. Harsher winters are a sign of [involuntary / loneliness / adept / oncoming] climate change.
4. He agreed to my [proposal / achievement / reality / fault], so the project will start next week.
5. We need to [block / allocate / accompany / acknowledge] more money to the project because the costs will be higher than we had originally thought.
6. Tapping someone quickly and suddenly on the knee causes an [involuntary / oncoming / adept / unique] movement of the lower leg.
7. I need to do something interesting to [gather / relocate / relieve / relive] my boredom.
8. The politicians' differing views [reflect / relieve / relocate / retain] their parties' different policies.
9. This particular illness is often [accompanied / acknowledged / blamed / relieved] by weakness of the muscles.
10. You are [in / over / through / under] no obligation to attend, but please come if you can.